TOP TWO SIDES WIN EASILY IN THE WET

The conditions may have been wet and slippery last Sunday, but that didn't stop Southern-Port Hamilton from kicking a mammoth 21.23 to crush Midland by 126 points.

Greasy conditions are not conducive to big scores, but last Sunday's result was a reflection of Southern Ports complete dominance in the match. They had 37 more scoring shots than Midland and controlled the game from the outset.

Melville set up their impressive win over Cockburn with a fine first quarter performance against a very strong breeze. Melville out-scored Cockburn 3.0 to 2.1 in the first term and then went on to score a comfortable 50 point win.

Mosman Park notched up their second win of the season with an easy 14 goal victory over the young Belmont combination. Mosman Park, one of the most experienced and talented teams in the competition this season, won 16.23 to 4.11.

But Mosman Park, who have scored big victories in their two matches this season, face their toughest encounter so far this year against Cockburn at Beale Park Today.

Cockburn were disappointing last week against Melville and should perform much better today on their home ground. However its crucial for them that young ruckman Mike Ingraham, who is nursing an injured shoulder, is fit to play.

Cockburn will also need another solid performance from centreman Paul Zuvella and ruck-rovers Tony Gumina and Randall Prowse.

But Cockburn will struggle against the talented Mosman Park line-up, which boasts an excellent defence led by Captain Coach Ian Earl and centre half back Joe Madej. Mosman also have the talented Barry Haydinger in excellent form in the centre and the classy Steve Rogers has been outstanding at centre half forward.

Two of the unbeaten teams in the competition, Southern Port and Melville clash at Davilak Oval in what will be the match of the day. One of the highlights of this match will be the contest between Southern Port centreman Sam Maskos and Melville's Gareth Stewart. Both players have been in good form and the outcome of that duel will be crucial.

Melville ruckman Paul Lyons featured prominently last week and his good work in the ruck was well complimented by rover Geoff Truscott.

Southern Port-Hamilton will look to ruck rover Ian Thorne and rover Len Paparella to give them the edge on the ball. It will be a tight encounter, but Melville - who despite winning by 50 points last week still were not at their peak should have the superiority to win.

In the other match today, Belmont will be trying to break the ice for 1984 in their match against Swan Valley at Forster Oval. Swan Valley had the bye last Sunday, following their 15 point win over Midland, and they will have their problems against the young and enthusiastic Belmont Team.

Sunday was impressive and they could make things very difficult for Swan Valley today.

BRUCE WAINWRIGHT

Bruce at the age of 37, and after umpiring 195 games with the W.A.F.A. as a field umpire. One would think its time for the vetrans, however in Bruce's case, he only improves with age.

He is always extremely fit running every day and after a big pre-season build up his umpiring is of the highest standard.

Bruce is married to wife Jill and has three sons and was awarded Life Membership to the W.A.F.A. last year for his excellent umpiring services to the Association. With the way Bruce is umpiring we can expect to see him around for many years, providing his enthusiasm for the game he loves continues.

Also congratulations to Graeme White on umpiring his 100th game today. Well done pal!

TWO OUT THREE AIN'T BAD

Congratulations to all players Melville and Cockburn for the spirited display in all three grades of football last Sunday. Under very difficult conditions the players performed to their upmost and spectators were treated to some extremelt good football. From a Melville point of view it was disappointing for the Colts to lose a close game but considering it was the first time they have played together competitively, there is no call for coach, Kim Davey to be too unhappy.

The ageless reserve side, under the astute coaching of Nipper Truscott and fanatical ranting and raving of Peter "Hotlips" Latham continued their unbeaten run. Sound first game performances from Graham "Don" Finlayson and Ray "Bali" Harvey helped improve a side that is stacked with stars of a bygone era. Special mention must be made of the Director's for flying Brett "Chilla" Hamilton from Darwin to fill the vacant full back position. Also we extend our appreciation to league backman, Dobby Tweedie and Peter Greaney, for giving Brett extra training on Thursday night and Friday morning.

A solid four quarter effort from our league side enabled them to gain another four points. One of the best on the ground was Alan "Grouo One" Burns at centre half back

A reminder to all players from to-days game that the award presentations will be made on Thursday night following training. If you are not present, you don't collect.

P.S. Boobie - Did you need your manual at Bingo!

We thank the players and supporters of the Cockburn club for joining us in our after game drinks last Sunday and we in turn look forward to joining in when we are away at Southern Port Hamilton today

Belmont Still In The Blues

First of all we would like to congratulate snowy and his loveky wife Kerry on the birth of their beautiful daughter Lisa. Secondly congrats to Dave Sims and Kerry Stacey on their engagement.

Another two day party, eh.

Oh Well! back to football. The Reserves game saw a return to wet weather football with flippers and snorkels being the order of the day, with rain falling for the whole four quarters. The gamw as a very scrambly affair with Belmont going down by three goals. Best players were; the old man of foortball, Fitzy, Ivan "Thne Terrible" Norman and skipper Andy Myers.

The league saw two players off to the hospital again, and this weakened the strength of the side for the day. Could these incidents in the last two weeks see the return of rugged Steve Busher? Being undermanned, the Belmont side found it hard to contain the Mosman Park opposition, who eventually ran out easy winners.

This means another hard week on the track. Best players were; Slammin' Morrie Patante again, Darryl "The Dill" Mills and Johnny Dimmer. thanks to the warm hospitality shown by the Mosman Park club after the game.

Ian Warburton lends A Hand

Congratulations to our colts team for their win last week. The colts are now gathering together a close combination of players who can sense that they are good enough to be the top team in the competition.

John Rodgers, Steven Bowe, Darren Blom and Gavin Smith are continueing on this season with their good form in the colts. In addition the team has been fortunate to gain the services of some outstanding new players, including Bruce Fraser, Doug Searle, Ray Offer, Glen Chandler and Darren Brealey. It was also good to see Trevor Brickhill and Graham McCarthy returning to the colts line-up last week.

The league and reserves last week again suffered from not being able to play a full four quarters of football. On a brighter note, a few of the players have started the season in great style. In the league Paul Zuvella, Alan Bell, Randall Prowse and Neil McCarthy have been amongst the best players in nearly all of the games.

In the reserves, Eddie Groves, Jim Gallagher and Tony Northan have been in great form so far this season.

It has been good to see last years coach Ian Warburton contributing to the club this season by making his coaching knowledge and playing skills available to this years coach, Garry Stewart. Ian's support has already been a great assistance to Garry and in the ensuing weeks I am sure his presence will be a steadying influence on the team.

Congratulations and best wishes go to Eddie Groves and his fiancée, leonie, from all members and supporters on the occasion of their wedding next Sunday. While we all hope they have a very enjoyable honeymoon, we also hope that Eddie is back on the field before too long.

This weeks additions to the injury list are; Joe Jackovich (groin), Michael Ingraham (collarbone), Frank Johnson (hamstring), and Roy Koeberl (hamstring). The club wishes all injured players a speedy recovery.

PLAYER PROFILE

STEVE BUSER
BELMONT COACH

Steve Busher is in his first year as coach with Belmont having been a past player with that club. Steve Played for Subiaco and has a reputation of being an aggressive participant. Living in Victoria Park with wifw Terri Steve works at the Repatriation Dept. With a nickname of "Bushells Tea" its rather surprising to some that Steve really likes a drop of Swan especially with a well cooked steak.

Although his charges this year lack in depth Steve sees his first task as coach to rebuild the league side and concentrate on fitness and ball skills.

Lets face it - as a bouncer at the Raffles Steve is not the kind of guy you would want to argue with. One thing is sure though, if the team listen and then put his message into practice then Belmont will indeed win a few this season.

Today we play Mosman Park and the club extends an invitation to all Mosman Park players, Supporters, etc to join with us in a drink after the game.

Remember!

"Three teams in the final four, in 84'.
